

3 Day Great Ocean Road and Grampians ex Melbourne

One of the world's best coastal routes blended with the beauty and history of the Grampians National Park, making this one of the best trips in Australia!

Itinerary

Day 1: Melbourne - Princetown

We begin the ultimate road trip, cruising towards the Great Ocean Road and stop to watch surfers in action at famed beaches such as Bells Beach and Torquay (home of surf brands Rip Curl and Quiksilver). We also visit artistic beachside villages of Apollo Bay and Lorne. We'll stop at the historical section of the Great Ocean Road that was carved through cliffs by returned World War I servicemen. We take a walk through the Great Otway National Park, home to some of the world's oldest temperate rainforest. There's no better place to finish the day than the famed Twelve Apostles. This spectacular collection of limestone stacks is best appreciated at sunset from the boardwalk. Take the opportunity to view this spectacular sight from the skies in a helicopter (extra cost). Tonight, we sleep in dormitory style accommodation on the Great Ocean Road.

Meal(s) included: Lunch, Dinner

Day 2: Princetown - Halls Gap

We continue along the Great Ocean Road, stopping at several extraordinary rock formations along the Shipwreck Coast, such as the Bay of Martyrs, London Bridge and Loch Ard Gorge. For lunch, we stop somewhere truly spectacular: The Tower Hill Reserve, home to a dormant volcano which was once active over 30 thousand years ago has now transformed into a stunning wetlands and lake eco-system, abundant with Australian wildlife. We enter the Grampians National Park in the afternoon, where we visit the Brambuk Cultural Centre to learn about local Aboriginal history, before taking a walk to Mackenzie Waterfalls. Before sunset when the local wildlife come out to play, such as wallabies, kangaroos and kookaburras, we walk to The Balconies, Boroka or Reeds Lookout which all provide a magnificent viewpoint and photo opportunity of the surrounding ranges and valleys. Tonight, we sleep in shared wooden cabin accommodation, with the mountains towering around us.

Meal(s) included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: Halls Gap - Adelaide

We get up to hike a challenging 2 hours to the Pinnacle in the Grampians National Park, but it's worth the effort for such awe-inspiring views. At the peak your tour guide will point out the surrounding scenery as the sun rises. We will enjoy lunch in the Grampians National Park before hitting the highway and arriving into Adelaide city at approximately 7pm.

Meal(s) included: Breakfast, Lunch

Depart early morning from Melbourne and stop at seaside villages before arriving to the Otway National Park Before enjoying the sunset at the 12 Apostles. On the day after spend time discovering the shipwreck coast before heading to the Grampians National Park. There, hike to the Pinnacle before visiting the Brambuk interpretive centre and Mackenzie Falls. We then head to Adelaide.
